

28 February 2020

First field sample collections were concluded on 28 February 2020. In this Tubitak 1001 project, which is carried out jointly with Yildiz Technical University, determining the factors that cause hydromorphological modification of Cayirova-Saz Stream will be investigated by focusing on innovative approach to monitor the Stream.

